RUSSIANS BURY 14,500 AUSTRIANS ON BATTLEFIELD

ALLIES FIGHT DESPERATELY TO PREVENT SUCCESS OF GERMAN ARMIES 50 MILES FROM PARIS

Curtain of Secrecy is Drawn Over Great Drama Being Enacted in Northern France; Kaiser Making Strenuous Efforts to Induce Italy to Become Involved in War; Vienna Announces Evacuation of Lemberg, Capital of Galicia, in View of Inevitable Occupancy by Russians; Overwhelming Defeat of Czar's Forces in East Prussia has not Abated Confidence of Petrograd.

AUSTRIANS REPULSED WITH IMMENSE LOSSES, FIFTEEN THOUSAND BEING BURIED ON FIELD; MANY OFFICERS AND MEN TAKEN PRISONERS

London, Sept. 2 (10:10 a. m.)—A corner of the curtain over the battle drama in northern France has momentarily been raised. It shows the allies battling desperately to prevent the success of the German armies assailing from the upper Oise, less than 50 miles from Paris.

On the eastern war stage Russia frankly confesses to disaster to two army corps, with the loss of three generals, elsewhere the Russian arms seemed to have triumphed. Galicia has been successfully invaded and Lemberg will soon be evacuated, according to reports from the St. Petersburg war office. If this is true, the Austrian menace to Russian Poland will be ended and the Russian forces can begin to converge for the march on Berlin, the Russian objective in north Galicia apparently being Koenigsberg, whence they can march on Berlin via Breslau.

The Prince of Wales relief fund to-day raised the $10,000,000 mark.

Germans were taken prisoners.

The Russian embassy here has denied it desirable formally to deny reports of pogroms at Vilna which it attributes to German and Austrian sources. The embassy has received a dispatch from Petrograd declaring that these reports are without foundation and that Vilna is perfectly calm.

The report is confirmed that the French abducted fourteen women and twenty-five children from a German frontier place; also a hospital doctor and assistant from Lofchingen. Fate unknown.

The papers are full of Russian horrors in East Prussia. The Russians cut off the breast of a mother and impaled her five children on a stake.

The Christians and Jewish populations are working together for the relief of the wounded.

RUSSIANS BEAT AUSTRIANS, BURYING FIFTEEN THOUSAND.

Petrograd, (88), Petersburg, Sept. 2 (via London, 11:52 a. m.)—The following official announcement was made public here to-day:

"Our forces invading Galicia have confirmed their advance in the direction of Lemberg. The enemy fell back gradually before our troops. We captured some cannon, some rapid fire guns and some caissons. The pursuit continues."

"Near Gnila and Lipia, the enemy occupied a strong position of such natural strength that it was considered impregnable. They also desperately attempted to stop our advance or a flanking attack in the direction of Haluz.

"We repulsed the Austrians, inflicting severe losses. We buried on the battlefield 15,000 Austrian dead, captured a flag and 22 guns and a quantity of supplies and made many prisoners—including a general."

"On the south front, in the Warsaw district, all the Austrians attacked have been repulsed with success. Assuming the offensive on our right wing we forced the Austrians to retreat, capturing three cannon, ten rapid fire guns and over 1,000 prisoners. According to statements made by the latter, the Austrian losses were very heavy."

GIVERWEARDED ARMY IS MARCHING ON PARIS

London, Sept. 2 (10:10 a. m.)—The Times correspondent at Dijon, France, has telegraphed his paper as follows:

"In the main northern theater of the war the German advance appears to continue without slackening its pace."

"It must be indeed an overwearied army that the Germans are bringing towards the torso of Paris. They made an effort which nearly deserves to be called superhuman. Nothing like it ever before was seen in war."

"Yet we may be sure they have spent themselves in vain."

GERMAN HEADQUARTERS IN PARTS UNKNOWN

London, Sept. 2 (10:10 a. m.)—In a dispatch from Amsterdam the correspondent of Reuters' Telegram company says the German military headquarters which until last Sunday were at Coblenz on the Rhine have been removed to an unknown destination.

Before their departure Emperor William caused to be published a proclamation thanking the inhabitants of the city for their patriotic and expressive pleasure that Coblenz had been chosen as the first headquarters during the war.

NAME ST. PETERSBURG IS RUSSIANIZED

Petrograd (88), Petersburg, Sept. 2 (via London, 10:10 a. m.)—The name St. Petersburg does not appear in any Russian newspaper today. Thus has been observed the imperial edict changing the name of the Russian capital from St. Petersburg to Petrograd, the name under which the city has been known since its foundation.

Washington, Sept. 2.—The German embassy received a wireless today from Berlin announcing that German and Austrian troops have occupied Lodz, the largest mining center in Polish Poland, and that the battle northward from Lemberg is continuing.

The report is confirmed that the French abducted fourteen women and twenty-five children from a German frontier place; also a hospital doctor and assistant from Lofchingen. Fate unknown.

The papers are full of Russian horrors in East Prussia. The Russians cut off the breast of a mother and impaled her five children on a stake.

Summary of Today's War News

The fourth day of the second general battle between the Germans and the allies find Emperor William's forces pressing with unprecedented strength their advance on Paris. Their right is reported to be within fifty miles of the French capital.

In the absence of official announcements, news despatches indicate that the British and French continue a stubborn resistance, giving way slowly, however, whenever this strategy is necessary to keep their lines intact and prevent an enveloping movement by the German right.

In the east the fighting is progressing with unabated fury. Both the Russian and Austro-German armies have met successes and reverses. It is admitted in Petrograd that two army corps were defeated in East Prussia and that three Russian generals were lost.

On the other hand the Austrians appear to have been defeated in Galicia, overwhelming successes are claimed by the Russians. This claim finds support in a despatch from Vienna, which states that the Austrians have decided to evacuate Lemberg, the capital of Galicia.

Official despatches from Petrograd by way of London show evidence of having been closely censored in London.

The attitude of Turkey and Italy are anxiously awaited by all the belligerents. A semi-official despatch from Petrograd says that Turkey troops have landed on the shores of Asia Minor at Smyrna. Further pressure is reported to have been brought on Italy by Germany and Austria to have her support the triple alliance.
